Answer

MINISTER OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY
(DR. HARSH VARDHAN)

(a) & (b): Science for Equity Empowerment and Development Division (SEED) in the Department of Science and Technology is mandated to provide opportunities to motivated scientists, technologists and field level Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) to take up action-oriented and location-specific projects primarily aiming towards socio-economic upliftment of poor and disadvantaged sections of the society. Under various programmes of the SEED Division, NGOs are extended support for development of Science & Technology. Under its Technology Development & Utilization Programme for Women (TDUPW) programme, Department of Scientific and Industrial Research (DSIR) also provides financial support to Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs). A statement containing the names of the schemes as well as list of projects funded to Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) for development of science and technology in the last three years and the current year is enclosed.

(c) Yes, Madam.

(d) The progress under the projects supported to the NGOs is monitored at regular intervals by a Committee of Experts appointed for the purpose as well as by officials of the Department. The suggestions made by the Committee of Experts are communicated to the NGOs for taking necessary action and midterm course corrections, if any, in implementing the projects. As working of none of the NGOs funded under the programmes of SEED Division was found unsatisfactory, thus no action was taken against these.
